Dog day afternoon!

Last week's enormously successful Romulus Michigan Week Festival certainly brought smiles to Barb Ferguson (left) and Wendy King (right), both 14 and Romulus residents. They said that they were having a great time with their newly-won prize pet, the biggest stuffed animal at the carnival!

Legionnaires' disease outbreak claims one

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

A 58-year-old Romulus woman who has been hospitalized with suspected Legionnaires' disease took a turn for the worse Monday, as officials at Wayne County Medical Center in Westland said she was in extremely critical condition Tuesday after suffering kidney failure apparently caused by the disease, which reportedly has struck at least 30 persons following an April 27 testimonial dinner at the Hilton Airport Inn in Romulus honoring the 25th anniversary of Reverend Isaac King as an Inkster minister.

A 76-year-old Detroit man, confirmed of having the disease, died late Saturday night in Detroit Osteopathic Hospital from a heart attack brought on by the pneumonia-like Legionnaires' disease. Bishop D. Moore, pastor of the Greater Northwest Church of God in Christ, was the uncle of King. King did not contract the disease.

An Inkster man, whose identity as well as that of the Romulus woman has not been made public, has been listed in critical condition at University Hospital in Ann Arbor. Reportedly, his wife had also been admitted to Annapolis Hospital in Wayne suffering symptoms of the disease, although she had never been in critical condition.

Also hospitalized is Inkster detective Charles Givens, 42. One of the first people to report the symptoms, Givens was listed in stable condition Tuesday at Annapolis Hospital. "I'm feeling better but still tired," Givens said of his lengthy hospital stay. Givens said he was first admitted to the hospital with symptoms of Legionnaires' disease on May 3, less than one week after he attended the banquet.

City manager Greg Knowles said Monday that at least six Inkster residents have been reported to have contracted the disease, but that county officials refused to speculate as to their identities.

Dr. Donald Lawrenchuk, Wayne County medical director, said that tests have been sent to laboratories in Lansing to determine the exact cause of the outbreak, but results are not expected back until early next week.

"We didn't learn of this until 12 days after the banquet," said Lawrenchuk, "when we received a call from Annapolis Hospital that several people had been seen there with symptoms of Legionnaires' disease, and all gave a history of having been at the Romulus Hilton on April 27."

"The incubation period for the disease is variable, ranging from two to 14 days, with the average being 5 1/2 days, so most of the people who were going to develop the symptoms had already done so by that time, or definitely have by now," Lawrenchuk said.

According to Wayne County health officials, the disease is transmitted through water droplets that become aerosolized, and then are breathed into the system. It is not believed to be transmitted through person to person contact.

"The morning after we received the calls we sent a team to the Hilton to take water samples from the pool, whirlpool and air conditioning system," Lawrenchuk stated.

Following the tests, Hilton officials had the water receptacles emptied and scrubbed. Lawrenchuk said that "there have been dinners both before and after (this one) and there have been no symptoms. This seems to be an isolated case."

As of Friday, Lawrenchuk said, there were a total of eight people hospitalized with symptoms, but only three were in critical condition. That count included Moore. Two others had been treated and released from area hospitals.

According to Lawrenchuk, there are three high-risk groups for the disease: older people; chronic renal (kidney) patients, because they are often taking medications that quite often suppresses the immune system, making them likely candidates, and chronic smokers. "Most of the people who came down with the symptoms are members of one or more of these high-risk groups," Lawrenchuk said.

Test results on the other suspected victims will not be finalized until later this week, according to officials at the health department.

When asked Monday if there have been layoffs of personnel due to cancellations as has been reported, a spokesperson at the Airport Hilton Inn said "absolutely not. We are running as we always do, business is normal. That is really the only comment we are making at this time."

Lawrenchuk said that he has been in daily contact with the hotel, and there have been no further development of symptoms, either among those who had stayed at the hotel or employees.

"We have heard from hundreds of people daily since we went public with it. We are asking that any individuals who attended this event on April 27 and have any of the symptoms, which include a high fever and cough, or anyone knowing of anyone who may have to please contact us at 467-3326 or, after five, at 467-3300," Lawrenchuk said.

Police extradite 2 robbery suspects

Romulus police have successfully sought the return of two men from Lexington, Kentucky, where they were arrested for using a charge card stolen from a 76-year-old Romulus woman in a May 1 robbery.

Michael P. Morris, 18, and a 15-year-old companion, described by police as 6 feet, 3 inches tall and 240 pounds, allegedly broke into the woman's Merriman home in the early evening of May 1, waited for her to return home and then attempted to tie her up, according to Romulus Det. Sgt. Sam Chalton.

"She fought them off though, until they apparently just gave up and left," Chalton said, adding that while waiting for her, the two played cards, drank pop and ate the woman's Girl Scout cookies.

"When she returned, the men had pillowcases with eyeholes cut in them over their heads, and at least one of them allegedly held a loaded gun on her, but she would not let them bind her," Chalton said.

Morris, whose last known address was in Southgate, was identified as the woman's grandson.

"She wasn't harmed physically, but she is still upset mentally and emotionally after finding out it was her own grandson," Chalton said.

According to police, the two had broken into the attic of the home, took four guns—two of them loaded—as well as cash and charge cards. Three of the guns were left in the home, with the other recovered by Kentucky police in the 1983 Chevrolet, which was also stolen from the Romulus woman.

Reportedly, the two charged thousands of dollars worth of merchandise on one of the stolen charge cards before it was identified as stolen. Romulus Police were then contacted by Kentucky officers.

"They voluntarily waived extradition procedures," said Chalton, who added "they seemed very anxious to get out of Kentucky and back to Michigan."

Morris is being held in Wayne County jail in lieu of $10,000 cash bond, with the juvenile also being held by authorities. Chalton says that they will attempt to try the 15-year-old as an adult, because of the seriousness of the crime.

Contract rift widens between teachers' district

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

The rift between the Romulus Board of Education and its teachers, who are deadlocked in contract negotiations, seemed to take wider Monday when a scheduled meeting prior to the school board meeting was called off by teacher bargaining head Christine Powers and a picket held in front of the board office instead.

"She (Powers) called and said that a half-hour session was not long enough, so I told her fine, we can take as long as we need," said Romulus Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Bedell, adding "she just said no, that they didn't want to meet with us anyways."

Attempts by the Romulus Roman to contact Powers for comment were unsuccessful.

According to Bedell, offers made by the board would put Romulus teachers in the top 10 percent of teachers in Wayne County salary-wise. "I think that if the rank and file knew the kind of offers we have on the table, and that the bargaining unit is telling us to stuff it, there would be trouble."

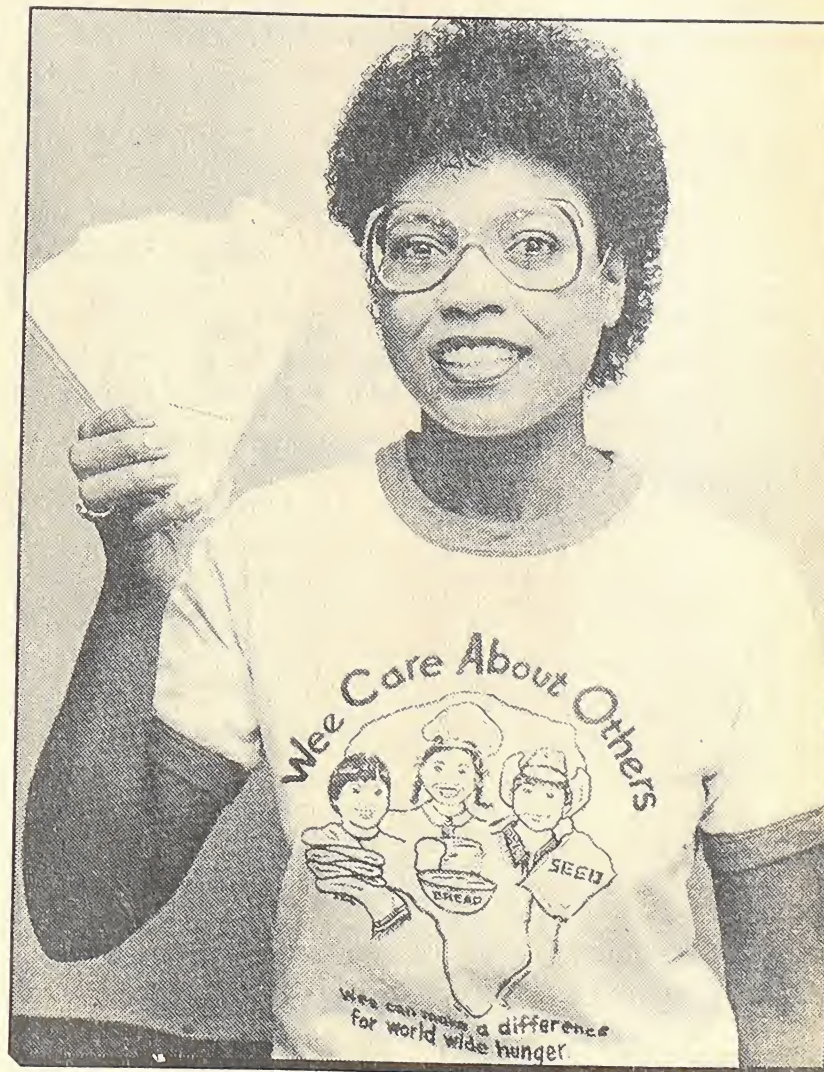

"Based on my contact with the teachers, they have not been made aware of what we are offering. It isn't getting to them," Bedell said.

It is believed that the board has offered a five-year contract, including 1984, but Bedell stated that "they want six years, and with the increases they are demanding, we would be bankrupt by the sixth year."

All millages must be renewed by Romulus voters next year, and Bedell has stated that he "will not renege on our promise to the people of Romulus, we will not cut the kid's programs. That was one of the main reasons we asked for the increased millage in the first place, and we'll stand by it."

The next bargaining session is scheduled for tonight (Wednesday).

Michigan Week festivities offer thrills, chills, just plain fun

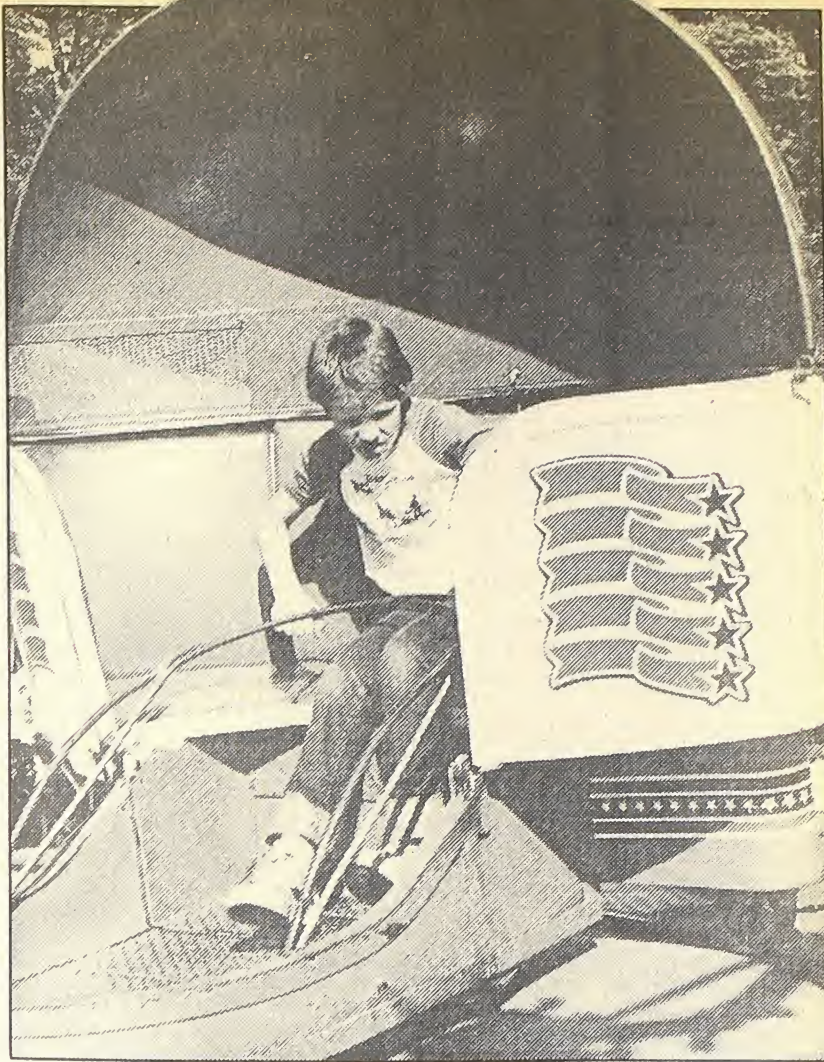

It's festival time in Romulus again! Last weekend was perhaps the most exciting the city has ever seen, with the parade, the carnival and the 10K run all taking place within a span of 48 hours.

"It has just been a super, wonderful weekend," commented Mayor Beverly McAnally as she presided over the festivities.

According to McAnally, the Friday evening parade was the largest in the city's history, with floats from neighboring communities such as Van Buren and Huron Township joining in the gala affair as Grand Marshal and nationally-known comedian Thom Sharp led the parade through the downtown area.

The third annual 10K run got off to a bang Saturday morning as 226 racers-up nearly one-third from last year-finished the marathon run. Said race coordinator Bill Smith: "We had a real good jump in numbers, and we're now one of the top races in the state." Winners overall were Tim Fox, top overall with a time of 31 minutes, six seconds; Cindy Barber, top woman finisher with a time of 38 minutes, 28 seconds, and Kris Lenzo, fastest in the wheelchair division with a time of 33 minutes, one second. "this was by far the fastest field we've had so far," Smith said.

THAT BLINDING LIGHT... What is it? ... Oh, (sigh of relief), it's only the reflection of the sun on the semi-hairless head of Thom Sharp. Actually, it was the flash of his camera as he snapped the photograph of one of the thousands who gathered to see him in the Romulus Sesquicentennial Michigan Week Parade.

The pleasantly obnoxious comedian led the parade from city hall to the festival area this past Friday. Once there, he entertained us with his own personal version of the history of Romulus. He was a grand Grand Marshal indeed. Thank you Mr. Hollywood, and good luck in your movie 'GA'. I'm sure you'll have a full fledged 'career' before you return in the year '2135' to lead the parade for Romulus' 300th Birthday.

Though we had typical Michigan weather, our festival still boasts of a 25% increase in participation again this year. The Festival Committee has already requisitioned a warm sunny week with a mild breeze for the 1986 festival. They sure are on the ball, aren't they?

Did you see the kids in the pie eating contest? What a mess they made! Old reliable Tom Vernatt kept the discs turning. Bingo, refreshments and casino type activities were provided by area groups. We had rides, rides and more rides. The biggest parade in the history of Romulus. Karate and art exhibits, little dancers, tappers, twirlers and jazz dancers delighted us. A more successful community pride 10K run was coordinated by Bill Smith. Horseshoe pitching and games for youngsters from who? The City Assessor? You mean he's human?

Rotary Club barbecue chicken and Kiwanis pancakes had all the other food concessions beat cold. The school bands, science fair award winners, NJROTC, the Clark Family Players, the Cornerstone, the Wesleyan Church Founder's Day Ceremonies, the Mount Pleasant Dedication, Thom Sharp, Bob Springfield, free drawings, raffles, and prizes and more prizes were all a part of the festivities. WHEW! What a busy week!

Wait, there's more... Monday was Government Day. The high school students visited the chamber of Judge James B. Stone and held a mock council meeting at city hall. Yesterday was Senior Citizen's day. A refreshing open-house was held at the Senior Citizen Drop-In Center. Today is Livelihood Day otherwise known as Dr. C. J. Carpenter Day. The Greater Romulus Chamber of Commerce will install their newly elected officers at a Luncheon at the Romulus Holiday Inn Holiday at 11:30. Tomorrow, Thursday, May 23 is Education Day. The Romulus Community Schools will host a number of activities including a dance and gymnastics recital at 7 p.m. in the high school auditorium where there will be no admission charge.

Hospitality Day will be Friday, May 24th. That's when the Romulus Historical Society, Romulus Sesquicentennial Committee and the Honorable Beverly McAnally invite everyone to stop in at city hall for a few minutes between the hours of noon and 5 p.m. The Michigan State Department of History was loaned their sesquicentennial display for our viewing pleasure throughout the month of May.

As you can see, a lot of planning went into these things. You ask yourself, 'Does it ever end?' No. Romulus in the Good Old Days is the theme of the movies and slide presentation which will begin at 7 p.m. at city hall on June 19th. Another Sesquicentennial Event! ... more to come.

NOTE: Someone lost a pretty blue bunny and a red, white and blue braided terry headband during festival. Phone me at 942-0919 if either of these items are yours. See you next week.

dan's dogs

by dan a. morris

Editor's Note: Dan Morris has been a professional dog trainer for more than 20 years and has worked in all phases of dog training. If you have a specific problem, his advice is available by writing him in care of Associated Newspapers Inc., P.O. Box 578, Wayne, Michigan 48184. He will reply in this column.

The weather is changing and it's almost time to take the dog into the groomer for a haircut. When the pet owner arrives at the grooming shop, they often are told, "I'm sorry, but your dog is badly matted and we will have to take him down." The usual reaction is, "he wasn't matted last night when I brushed him," or "He got matted driving here," or "that new shampoo mats him."

At least 85 percent of the long-haired dog owners have no idea of what a matted dog looks like or what is necessary to maintain the appearance of their breed of dog. Long haired dogs have more protection from the elements by keeping the hair on them, rather than having the hair cut off. The reason for this is the hair insulates the body from the heat. Dogs do not have sweat glands like people do, rather they perspire through their feet and mouth to control their body heat. Therefore, a long-haired dog cut down for the summer can get heat stroke and sunburned faster than if he had been brushed regularly and the coat saved.

The ladies of the household think nothing of going to the beauty salon for their monthly hair appointment. They stay no longer than 45 minutes for a complete styling. The dog, on the other hand, has to stay a minimum of 1 1/2 hours for drying, cut and styling. The person, unlike the dog, sits still and does not try to bite, jump, twist, snap, scratch, urinate or defecate. If the dog is groomed only once a year, he will panic and lose control while trying to avoid brushing, combing or bathing.

Dog groomers have a large responsibility. They must know the dog's temperament and body structure. I feel very strongly that a qualified groomer is the most underpaid person in the dog field. If the groomer has no other choice than to strip the dog (cutting the hair as close to the skin as possible) the owner is usually concerned about the looks of their animal. Most groomers dislike stripping a dog, because it's much more difficult to strip than to groom a coat that has been taken care of. Also, when a stripped dog leaves the grooming shop it looks as though it's the groomer's fault that the dog looks naked. Most dogs should be groomed every six to eight weeks to eliminate "stripping." The short-haired dogs, like the Doberman, should be bathed twice a year.

Talk to your groomer and learn how to brush and maintain your pet's appearance.

ANIMALS HAVE FEELINGS, TOO!

Beyer Memorial Hospital offers parenting classes

Parents-to-be can learn more about the birth experience at Beyer Memorial Hospital's expectant parent classes. The five-week series provides information for a satisfying birth experience to parents whether they intend to deliver at Beyer or another hospital. To meet parent's schedules, the classes are repeated twice every Wednesday, from noon until 2 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. Cost for the class is $6 per person with parents urged to participate as a couple. Registration can be made by calling 484-2359 between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m., Monday through Friday. The classes rotate throughout the year on a five-week cycle. The next series of classes will begin on Wednesday, May 22, and run through June 19. For the rest of the year and early 1986, the beginning dates for the classes are June 26, Sept. 4, Oct. 9, Nov. 13, Jan. 8, Feb. 12, March 19 and April 23. To receive the maximum benefit from the classes, Beyer obstetrics advise starting the class approximately two months from the mother's delivery date.

Beginning the series is a class on fetal growth and development, physical and emotional changes during pregnancy, labor techniques, and car seat safety for newborns. Caesarian birth information and exercises for pregnant women comprise the second class. Class three is devoted to review exercises with a physical therapist and a tour of the Beyer maternity unit. The birth process is explored in the fourth class, and the series concludes with changes in the new mother and the care of the newborn. The expectant parent classes are one facet of a complete maternity unit at Beyer, including obstetrics and gynecology services, family centered maternity care, parent education and an upcoming renovation of the obstetrics and pediatrics units.

Landfill woes demand solutions, not alibis

Is the Woodland Meadows Landfill, located off Hannan Road along the border of Canton Township and the city of Wayne, the source of debris and odor problems?

To anyone who has ever driven or spent some time near this 105-acre site on a warm and windy day, the answer is relatively simple. Of course there is a problem here but finding a consensus of opinion on how to correct the situation poses the real stumbling block.

During a recent Wayne City Council meeting representatives of Waste Management, Inc. (the landfill owner) and the Wayne County Environmental Health Department discussed the situation and the plethora of complaints leveled against Woodland Meadows. What transpired, in fact, was plenty of conversation but little of substance.

Two basic problems exist at this site, one of the largest landfills in Wayne County: nauseous odors and excessive debris. In our opinion, these elements continue to lower the standard of living in the area, especially for Wayne residents who are not spared from the foul smell and litter brought by westerly winds.

Wayne residents have filed a lawsuit in an attempt to gain relief. A local drive-in movie owner has threatened similar action, claiming that evening odors have adversely affected business.

It is our belief that more communication, rather than litigation, could solve this disagreement. To this point, however, the agencies involved in operating and policing Woodland Meadows have not made a concerted effort to work towards a settlement.

A marketing representative of Waste Management publicly identified the 24-hour, seven-day-a-week schedule as one source of the odor troubles. Yet, the landfill is forced by a judicial order to maintain such an around-the-clock timetable despite its capabilities.

At the same time a spokesman for the county health department reported that spot checks at the site have failed to uncover any odors. Apparently the investigators have not been nosing around enough, considering the stench that area businesses and homeowners claim exists on a very regular basis.

A number of solutions have been proposed, from installation of another fence to catch debris... to a change in scheduling... to stricter regulation of landfills.

Woodland Meadows Landfill reportedly has another seven-year life span as a waste disposal site. It is our opinion that the debris and odor situation will remain a menace to the surrounding areas for those seven years unless some meaningful communication occurs now among those in positions to affect change.

Who needs to take part in devising and implementing a strategy to improve the quality of life in this area? Elected and administrative leaders from Canton Township and the City of Wayne, the owners and operators of the landfill, representatives of the Wayne County Environmental Health Department and the Department of Natural Resources and local business owners and homeowners, to name some agencies and individuals with some responsibility in this matter.

A strategy of passing the buck and rationalization of the problems is inappropriate and inexcusable.

The great pretenders . . .

The world, it seems, is full of people who have convinced themselves that they are "smarter" than most everyone else.

Now I am a great believer in one having confidence in oneself, but a superiority complex based on unrealistic notions of superior intellect is another matter.

Perhaps we all need to accept as our gauge that we are only "smarter" if the results of our performance in a given endeavor proves to be superior. In other words... "by your fruits shall we know thee."

I marvel at the egomaniacs who revel in their own magnificence. If, by some chance, there is superior intellect, skill and wisdom present, they are usually too quick to tell any willing listener how brilliant and clever they are.

Too often, these self-congratulating, over-grown quiz kids talk smart, think smart, but act rather stupid. One might suggest then, perhaps, that those who like to tell so many how bright they are, are whistling through the graveyard, looking for someone, anyone, who will confirm what they dearly would like to think is true. In their heart of hearts they often know that their boasts are no more than a "wish".

All of us should be smart enough to know what we don't know, and be willing to accept our "short suits" in the card game of life. We should be willing to admit to areas of inability and ignorance. Because we don't know doesn't mean we can't find out. "Pretending" rarely results in anything other than contempt and disrespect. It also results most often in an unwillingness by peers to rely on or even believe any statement of fact. "If they lied to me or misled me on this matter, how can I believe anything they say" others conclude.

Seeking knowledge is a virtue. Professing to already have what one hopes to have is fraud.

Only when one can accept with humor one's shortcomings—laugh at oneself—yet confess an earnest desire to overcome one's shortfalls in skill and knowledge can he win the respect of colleagues and friends.

Vanity, I suppose, is what prevents or dissuades one from confessing inadequacies in advance. "Vanity thy name is fool" is a literary license of a well-worn Shakespearean line.

Perhaps this phenomenon occurs most often when one doesn't feel the way he is "supposed" to feel.

That may be the motive when one is older and is expected to be wiser, yet isn't... is rich and therefore expected to be smart, witty and charming, yet isn't... is pretty or handsome and is thought of as equally intelligent, but isn't... or when one has earned a bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree and is expected to be "wise" in fields outside their own, but is not.

It makes little sense to me to go out of our way to tell all how uninformed we are or how limited in skill we are in areas outside those of our expertise. People can usually assess through probing questions if it has relevance to their concerns what it is that we don't know.

But to make erroneous statements about our abilities under the misguided notion that others will think better of us is nonsense.

As Lincoln said, "Better for others to think you a fool than to open your mouth and prove it."

Perhaps if we can all learn to accept ourselves for what we are, aspire to greatness but not pretend we are something we are not—perhaps then we would all be better adjusted, feel better about ourselves, and have earned the respect and admiration that vanity and boasting never achieve.

I've always admired those who could take a sort of Will Rogers view of life, with a humorous, philosophical approach. Like Rogers, they accept themselves as God made them and can see the funny side of their bumbling and incompetence.

Let's face it folks, this life is too short to take ourselves all that seriously.

If God had taken this whole thing seriously, would He have made us to look the way we do?

See you next week!

Teacher of year

To The Editor:

We were delighted to hear that James McLaughlin has been selected Teacher of the Year by John Glenn High School. The fact that he has been selected by his peers makes the selection a truly notable one. His colleagues recognize his dedication and outstanding abilities.

Five of our six children have been Mr. McLaughlin's students, and we have been extremely pleased with the high quality of his standards in the classroom. He treats his students with respect and expects them to perform in the classroom in a like manner. We believe one gets out of his students what one expects from them and in this regard, his high expectations pay off in dividends to the students.

A course in American Foreign Relations is highly recommended by counselors and teachers at John Glenn High School. Mr. McLaughlin has been responsible for instituting, setting up an outline and teaching this course.

The course offers students an excellent background in foreign affairs. It makes them more aware of the world around them and more able to digest the world news with some degree of understanding and knowledge. American Foreign Relations is a fine example of Mr. McLaughlin's work.

An outstanding quality of Mr. McLaughlin's is in his enthusiasm. He finds his subject matter interesting and transmits this enthusiasm to the students. One of our sons tells us that after a class lecture on one of the political ideologies of the world, the whole class stood up and applauded. His classes are never dull.

Our congratulations to Mr. McLaughlin and to the fine teachers at John Glenn High School who selected him.

Opposes center

To the Editor:

I really can't believe that the city of Wayne is going to put up another shopping center. The Metro Place Mall is not full, the Wayne Commons is not full, and there are empty stores and buildings throughout the entire city.

I do not think we need another drug store, we have five already. We don't need another hardware store, we have three of those. Why don't the city fathers try and get us a shoe store, or different businesses that we don't have in Wayne.

I feel that the area to be used for another shopping center would be put to better use as a city park, with benches, tables, and some new trees. Let's make the city look nice, instead of building another building that will be partially full all the time.

Another shopping center is not going to solve any of the problems that the existing businesses have. We need to promote the city, and to do that we need to fill all the present vacancies before we build more buildings, (or vacancies).

CONNIE SIESE,
Wayne

Dividing the pie

To the Editor:

Our learned City Council has done it again. They seem to know beyond a shadow of a doubt that what they do is "right".

Twenty years has passed since Wayne's City buildings were torn down through "urban renewal" and a race track built through it.

Yet, I bet if the truth were known, more people dealt in this town than they do now. Our Mall is struggling to stay alive; five drugstores already compete with each other, two very good hardware stores serve our purpose already. Anyone knows that when you divide up a pie the less everyone has.

I think the people of Wayne should make Wayne a corporation and everyone given a share or two and then elect a board of directors.

Then we could get rid of the city council. Imagine selling that piece of land for $150,000, prime land?

ROBERT ANDERSON,
Wayne

New breadwinners

To The Editor:

Congratulations to the eager young individualists who are graduating from high school and college! They are the brand new breadwinners, the parents and homemakers of tomorrow.

"Tomorrow" in this sense means the next five or ten years. Even so, Commencement Day is a milestone not only for young graduates, but also for their parents.

Up to the time of graduation, fathers and mothers have always thought of themselves as parents of little boys and girls.

Gov. Blanchard makes a point

Blanchard pushes 'fairness' plan

By DENNIS NIEMIEC
ANP Managing Editor

Labelling property taxes "the most burdensome and out of line" in Michigan, Gov. James Blanchard pushed for legislative and public support of his Fairness Plan during a recent press conference with suburban editors and reporters at the Hyatt Regency in Dearborn.

The Fairness Plan would provide more than $200 million in state property tax relief for renters and homeowners during its first year, the governor said. Another highlight of the program is the proposed closing of several special interest tax loopholes to finance approximately $2 billion in property tax cuts through the next 10 years.

"Our goal is a more fair tax system," Blanchard said. "Property taxes are way out of line in relation to other taxes." Blanchard said that Michigan ranks fifth highest in the country in terms of its property tax levy, trailing only Wyoming, Montana, New Hampshire and Alaska.

Included in the plan is passage of a $40 million "brain-power deduction" for Michigan businesses engaged in research and development linked to future economic expansion.

Among the loopholes closed according to the Fairness program: Michigan insurance com-taxed over a 10-year period, and gains on the sales of investments will be taxed at the level proposed by the Reagan administration for federal taxes.

Blanchard said the plan has "better than a 50-50 chance" of being approved by the state only issue against good ole Jim Blanchard."

In comparing Michigan's tax base with other states, the governor rated the state's sales and business taxes as below the average and the income tax as at the norm.

"This is as good a time as any (for the Fairness Plan)," Blanchard said. "Reagan is talking about tax fairness, so it's topical. And we're still a year and a half away from an election."

Blanchard said he expected local public support for his program since "property values tend to be higher in the suburbs of Detroit."

During the press conference Blanchard also said that state officials had offered a revolutionary proposal to General Motors in an attempt to lure the Saturn plant.

"We're definitely in the running," Blanchard said. "We're cost competitive."

"Our goal is a more fair tax system. Property taxes are way out of line in relation to other taxes."

"If it doesn't (pass), it will be because of a fear of the legislature that they won't get credit for the program."

Then all of a sudden they find themselves parents of young men and women eager to try their wings and be on their own.

This explains why there are so many moist eyes and dry throats as their offspring grab the diplomas. But they always put on a smile, parents have to be brave too.

These grown-up sons and daughters have the typically American urge to be on their own, and to live their own lives, but most of them will listen and respond to friendly counsel. Some of them are wise enough to ask for it.

There are some restless boys and girls who become obsessed with their own idea of being "independent" of everybody no matter what it costs.

Unfortunately, as long as they think they can lick the world without any help from anybody, there isn't much that we can do but to help them understand why they will never achieve true independence or complete self confidence until they have faith and confidence in others - especially those who love them.

They and their parents can be grateful that they live in a country where every man of good will is free to enter any business, trade, or profession and achieve security through initiative and ability.

We of the passing generation realize that we have a good deal to learn from youth. Youth can give us ideas of what we have done wrong as breadwinners and homemakers, and what we can do now to remedy our failures.

God bless our youth.

Community support

To The Editor:

This letter is to thank the community for support of the Plymouth-Canton Substance Abuse Intervention Committee. Our committee has now had two telethons, a bowl-a-thon and a number of other fund-raising activities.

Thanks to the support of our community, more than $28,000 has thus far been raised. This money will be used for a substance abuse intervention program which will begin with a workshop for up to 100 community members this summer.

Additional fund-raising activities upcoming will include a softball tournament which will take place on June first and second at the new Canton softball center.

We are grateful to those who have expressed an interest in the efforts of the committee and those who have contributed materially to the success of our fund-raising activities.

Thanks to you, we will be able to deal more effectively with substance abuse by our community's youth.

Local students featured in drama farce

By RUSS OGDEN
ANP Special Writer

April Lewis of Canton and Kevin Wright of Westland are among the featured performers in the farce "Waltz of the Toreador," scheduled at 8 p.m. June 6 through 8 at the Eastern Michigan University Quirk Theatre.

Cast in the role of Gaston, an insipid male secretary to General Pe', Westland freshman Wright must present a façade of improbable innocence and bumptiousness. Wright, a graduate of John Glenn High School, has appeared in "Oedipus" and "Blood Wedding" at Eastern.

While at John Glenn, Wright played the role of Tevye in "Fiddler on the Roof" and was a featured dancer in two productions: "Pirates of Penzance" and "Girl Crazy." Wright is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Wright of Westland.

Returning from a fall semester (1984) at the Performing Arts College in Nonington, England, Lewis returns to Eastern's familiar stage to her as Mlle. de Ste-Euverte. Currently serving as president of Alpha Phi Omega (1984-1985), Eastern's professional drama fraternity, Lewis's past critical successes included roles in "Bus Stop," "Morning at Seven," and "Electra." Lewis is the daughter of John and Carol Lewis of Canton. Lewis graduates in August and plans to professionally develop a career in Chicago theatre.

Anne-Marie Roberts takes on the part of the First Maid in "Waltz." This Plymouth Salem High School graduate, currently a sophomore theatre arts major at Eastern, has appeared in multiple roles: Louise in "The Runner Stumbles," a lady of the night in "The Three Penny Opera," and "Blood Wedding." Roberts is the daughter of William and Carol Roberts of Plymouth.

Dr. P. George Bird, the Dean of Communications and Theatre Arts at Eastern Michigan University, selected M. Anouilh's farce for the Quirk Theatre. Toreadore opened on Broadway two years after Dr. Bird arrived at Eastern (1955), with the current year representing his 30th year as a loyalist to EMU's theatre program and to the Quirk Theatre, to become the Quirk-Sponberg Theatre in January, 1986.

In winning the New York Drama Critics Circle award in 1957, "Toreador" had heavy competition with critically acclaimed "Mary Stuart," "Look Back in Anger," "I Knock at the Door," and two Festival hours are from 6 to 11 p.m. Friday, noon to 11 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, and noon to 9 p.m. Monday.

Members sought by squadron musicals destined for future fame: a tale of Romeo and Juliet "West Side Story," and a corn-ball musical named "Music Man" which exploded Robert Preston's musical career.

Theatre spokesperson Ken

April Lewis and Rick Greene star in EMU production

Stevens sees "Waltz of the Toreador" as the misadventure of General St. Pe', a soldier who fancies himself quite the toreador with the women of Paris. Anouilh's farcical lover blunders through a maze of comic encounters with his elusive wife, her not-so-professional physician, and a virtuous young woman whose love for Pe', provides moments of straight forward spiritual candor. The story concludes in the true sense of French farce as the general is turned from tragic ruin by rekindled romantic adventure."

M. Anouilh finished "La Valse des Toreadors" at age 41 (1951) with the English translation in 1956 providing a base for the Broadway opening January 18, 1957. Anouilh has been considered as the last of the avant-garde dramatists of the 1930's and as the first post-1945 generation.

Reservations can be made at the Quirk Theatre in Ypsilanti or by calling 487-1221.

Historic event

Management and staff of Don Massey Cadillac, 40475 Ann Arbor Road in Plymouth were all smiles last week as the agency celebrated the groundbreaking for its expansion project that will provide space in the service department and body shop. Among those observing the historic occasion were Steve Barger (front left), general sales manager; owner Don Massey; Marcello Scappaticci, whose firm will handle the construction; Karen Laporte, assistant to Massey, and Charles Curtis, Massey's grandson. Dennis Urban of Cadillac Motor Division also attended the ceremonies.

Massey Cadillac expands

The expansion of the service department and body shop at Don Massey Cadillac in Plymouth, scheduled to be completed within 90 days, will provide the dealership with the largest Cadillac service facility in the world. "We have always given good service to our customers and this will take care of the additional volume of new cars sold every day," Massey said last week at groundbreaking ceremonies. "We will handle a much greater volume and also provide a much faster service, which has always been our main goal." The expansion will add another 60 service bays at the agency, bringing the total number to 140. Massey Cadillac already has the largest service facility for Cadillacs in the Detroit area. "With Don Massey the customer is always number one and we intend to keep it that way," Massey declared.

Belleville is 3rd best in 'A' regional track

Larcinese wins discus in record style

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

With junior Matt Larcinese hurling the discus to a record 162 feet, 3 inches, Belleville came away from Westland John Glenn on Saturday with a third place team effort at the Class A Regional Track & Field championships.

Larcinese shattered his own record of 161 feet, 10 inches en route of winning the regional gold medal and qualifying for the state finals. The state finals will be conducted June 1 at Flint Northwestern.

Coach Dave Medley also managed to qualified six other athletes for the state. They include regional champ, Billy Armstrong, who captured a first in the shot put. His 52 feet, 9 3/4 inches was the best effort for the day. Joining Larcinese and Armstrong in the winner's circle was teammate Millard Thomas who picked up the gold for his 38.1 performance in the 300-meter hurdles.

Thomas, a junior, also established a new mark for the hurdles.

Medley was pleased with his team's overall performance at the regionals.

When you consider the caliber of competition at Glenn," Medley noted, "you have to be pleased at the way the kids ran and performed. Some of them had exceptional efforts."

Thomas also qualified in the high jump, an event where he placed second with a leap of 6 feet, 3 inches. Armstrong's 14.8 in the high hurdles was the third best time for that event.

Medley's 800-meter relay team of Clarence Patton, Garin Clark, Alton Henningburg and Thomas finished with the silver for their 1:32.0. They lost the gold to Ann Arbor Huron.

Ann Arbor Huron, with 91 points, beat out its city rival, Pioneer, which had 71 for the Class A title at Glenn. Belleville's 65 points were the third best amassed by a team.

Belleville will place its Wolverine 'A' Conference title on the block today as Medley and his staff host the 1985 championships which will get underway at 3 p.m. "It's going to be rough repeating," says Medley, "but I think we as ready as we will ever be."

Belleville also collected regional points from its 3,200 meter relay team which finished sixth in 8:19.8 with Paul Henningburg, Roger Burg, George Kapitan and Tim Jackson. They were clocked in 8:19.8. The Tigers were also sixth with Durane Burrow in the high hurdles (15.4), and with

Vikings strike gold with Henderson

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

A superlative performance by the runners lifted Inkster High to a second place finish at the 1985 Class B Regional Track & Field Championships staged Saturday at Chelsea.

Scoring 67 points, the Vikings finished behind Ypsilanti Lincoln, the regional champ, in a field of 18 other schools. Trailing the two frontrunners were Saline(58), Cherry Hill(49), Willow Run(48), Hartland(38), Dearborn Heights Robichaud(33), Pinckey(28), Fenton(27), and Milan(25).

Mike Henderson was instrumental in the Vikings picking up medals in the 3,200 meter relay; 400-meter relay, 1,600-meter relay and the high hurdles.

Henderson proved to be the best in the field in the 110-meter high hurdles as he cleared the obstacles in the winning time of 14.8. He also was on the Vikings' gold-medal winning 1,600 relay team that was also made up of Earl Truss, Staint R. Edwards, and Randy Wilson who were clocked in 3:25.7.

The 400-meter relay four-some also featured Henderson who combined his talents with Earl Truss, Roderick Slaughter and David Laws. Their winning time was 43.8.

The Vikings received an outstanding effort from Earl Truss who crossed the finish line first in the 400-meter dash. He was clocked in 50.5.

Inkster finished third in the 3200-meter relay as Gerald McClendon, Staint R. Edwards, Henderson and Randy Wilson toured the distance in 8:17.9.

Laws also contributed a second-place for his performance in the 200-meter dash. He was clocked in 22.5.

The Vikings failed to pick up points in the field events and that gave Ypsilanti a substantial edge in its bid for the regional championship.

Inkster will have an excellent shot at striking gold in the relays at the state level when the competitions are held a week from Saturday on June 1 at Northwest Jackson High School.

Robichaud will be represented at state by MacIntosh who is the Chelsea regional champ for the long jump. He leaped 21 feet, 4 inches. MacIntosh also was third in the 100-meter dash, finishing with a 11.1 for his sweat.

The Bulldogs' 400-meter relay team of Ernest Johnson, Edward Jackson, Roosevelt Walker and MacIntosh also will be making the trip to the state finals after finishing third

Spartans eye 16th track title

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Coming off of a fourth-place finish at the Class B Regional Track & Field Championships, defending champ, Cherry Hill, will send its forces into the field at Southgate Anderson in hopes of harvesting their 16th consecutive title.

Coach Dick Gordon's troops enter the battle with an unblemished 6-0 dual meet record after turning back their major obstacle, Anderson.

"Although we are favored to win the title and they will be trying to catch us," said Gordon, "this meet will be closer than many expect it to be. There's a lot of talent spread around the league and our major goal will be to make sure we don't have any letdowns."

The championship will be decided today (Wednesday) at the old Schafer High Field.

In the meantime, the Spartans returned from Chelsea, the site of the Class B regional, with a fourth place team finish and a handful of state qualifiers and medals.

Cherry Hill compiled 49 points, finishing behind regional winner, Ypsilanti Lincoln (82), Inkster (67), Saline (58) in the final standings.

Eric Truss, nursing an injury to his knee, leaped only once in the long jump, but his 21 feet, 1 inch effort was good enough for a silver medal. He was second to Robichaud's Dennis MacIntosh who won the gold for his 21 feet, 4 performance. (The top three finishers in each of the events qualify for state. The state finals will be held on June 1).

The Spartans also received a medal-winning performance from Michael Johnson who placed third in the shot put with a heave of 47 feet, 4 1/2 inches. Fred Morgeson of Dearborn Heights Crestwood fame, captured first place (49 feet, 11 1/2 inches) while Fenton's Dave Hint was third.

Heading for state finals

A leg injury didn't stop Cherry Hill's outstanding long jumper, Eric Truss, Saturday at the Class B regional championships staged at Chelsea. Truss used only one leap to wind up with a silver medal and qualify for the state finals. His 21 feet, 1 inch effort was second to only Robichaud's Dennis MacIntosh who had a 21 feet, 4 inch performance for the gold.

Wayne, Edsel Ford 'rained out'

Although they have a 2-1 edge, Wayne Memorial knows it has problems when the Zebras take to the field for the pre-district qualifying round.

When the rains commenced in the fifth, Coach Jim Chronowski's Zebras had a one run lead, but Edsel Ford had runners on second and third and with one out.

"We'll pick up where we left off," said Chronowski whose club must get past the Dearborn team in order to reach the playoffs on Friday. The winner of the Wayne-Edsel Ford match-up will take on Bishop Borgess on Friday.

Chronowski sent his ace sophomore, Ron Way, to the mound against the T-Bird who only got two hits off of him during 4 2/3 innings of work.

Wayne put runs on the scoreboard twice with two-away. In the second inning, Chris Kaske walked, moved to second with Dave Reynolds' single and eventually Kaske scored when Edsel hurler Dave Jetter unleashed a wild pitch.

The winner of Tuesday afternoon's game between Wayne Memorial and Edsel Ford will advance to meet Bishop Borgess on Friday in the qualifying round for representation in the Class A district playoffs.

Edsel tied the game in the third, but the Zebras broke the deadlock as Kaske again drew a base on balls and Reynolds drilled a triple.

On Saturday, it was "Prom Night" for Wayne and the net results were disastrous as Chronowski's Zebras fell twice to state-ranked Ypsilanti. They lost the opener of a doubleheader 6-2, then were buried in the nightcap, 13-1. Reynolds continued his torrid hitting streak, collecting a pair of hits. Tony Darkangelo and Gary Scott also checked in with two hits.

Wayne has a busy schedule in the stretch. They started the week (weather permitting) hosting Wolverine 'A' Conference rival, Wyandotte, on Monday, then played the pre-district make-up against Edsel Ford on Tuesday. On Wednesday they travel to Monroe and Thursday they will clash with Trenton at Trenton.

Cherry Hill runners seeking 16th Tri-River League title

Cherry Hill also got a silver from Mike Brown in the 100-meter dash as he crossed the finish line in 10.8. Just a step ahead of Brown was Willow Run's Darryl Warner. Brown's time established a Cherry Hill record, breaking the former mark set by Ken Winfrey. Brown was also third in the 200-meter, again trailing Warner and Inkster's David Laws to the ribbon. Brown's time was 22.8, while Warner's winning time was posted as 22.1 and Laws had a 22.5. Coach Gordon's 1,600-meter relay team also will compete at state as Bryon Hendricks, Quinn Lawrence, Bubba Zirker and Truss finished third in 3:29.2. Inkster took the gold, followed by Ypsilanti. Although they didn't qualify for state, Cherry Hill also received key points from its 3,200-meter relay team of Wayne Stephens, Eric Truss, Bubba Zirker, and Lawrence who finished fourth in 8:18.6, while the 800-meter relay, made up of Don Watson, Curtis Adams, Zarick Duran and Michael Brown who wound up fifth in 1:33.4.

Zirker also had a fourth-place in the 1,600-meter run. He reached the finish line in 4:39.9. Saline's Darryl Zeck won the gold in 4:32.0. Truss crossed the finish line fourth for the 300-meter low hurdles (41.2) while Lawrence was clocked in 2:05.1 for the 800-meter run. "It was a good test for our team," said Gordon. "And I wasn't disappointed on what we did at the regional. Some of the best teams in the state were at Chelsea and I believe we have an excellent chance of scoring at state."

Undefeated defending Tri-River champs

With 15 consecutive Tri-River Conference track & field championships behind them, Cherry Hill thincblads will enter the conference meet today at Schafer High School sporting a perfect 6-0 league record and favored to repeat as league champs. The Spartans will end their long tradition of fielding outstanding athletes next year when the high school closes its doors. Cherry Hill has merged with the Wayne-Westland Community School District.

Glenn Northwest Suburban 'bridesmaid'

By KEITH A. DeMOLAY
ANP Staff Writer

Challenge, according to Funk and Wagnall's, is "to demand defiantly", and that is what the Rockets of Westland John Glenn did this past week in posting two consecutive Northwest Suburban League victories to finish second to defending Class B state champion, Redford Thurston.

The Rockets entered the week with their backs to the wall, having suffered three straight losses that dropped their NWSL record to 4-4. One more loss and their hopes of finishing in the first division would be dashed. "I'm disappointed we came in second," said Coach Norm Hoenes, completing his 20th year at the helm of the Glenn baseball team. "I knew the race would be close and the 6-4 record wasn't a disappointment because of the closeness of the race." These Rockets accepted the challenge as they took on Redford Union on Tuesday at Glenn's Alumni Field. First to accept the challenge was 6-0 righthander Steve Irwin, who entered the contest with a 5-1 record. Irwin knows the meaning of challenge, having accepted it earlier in the school year when he led the football squad to a 47-46 four overtime victory over the Panthers. It was the same way this afternoon as he mowed down the Panthers methodically, fanning eight of the first 10 batters he faced. His teammates gave him a 2-0 lead to work with in the first inning off of RU's Dennis Mat-tison, who had beaten the Rockets earlier in the spring. With one out, Dave Husak walked. Bill Barber then tapped a ball in front of the mound that Mat-tison fielded with no problem. That is, until he threw the ball down the right field line that enabled Husak to score and Barber to take third from where he scored on Brad Mar-tin's groundout to second. RU got a run back in the fourth on a walk to Scott Butler and a single by Kevin Moore. But the Rockets responded to challenge when they tallied two runs in the fifth. Jason McKarge walked, took second on a passed ball, and raced home when Irwin helped his own cause with a double to right center. Irwin scored when Cass Simpson legged out his fifth triple of 1985 and Glenn led, 4-1.

Redford Union didn't quit, though. They threatened in the sixth and finally scored in the seventh on a fielder's choice by Mike Stefanski and a single by Dennis Bushart. But Irwin was up to the challenge, fanning Miller with the tying run on second, his career-high 16th strikeout, and Glenn was still in the hunt for the title with a 4-3 victory.

"It was a real gutty performance by Steve," Hoenes said. "Especially with the tying and lead runs on base and striking out the league's leading hitter in Pat Miller." By the time the Rockets returned to the diamond on Friday, Thurston had wrapped up the league title. But there was still a challenge left - to finish second at 6-4 by themselves rather than tie for second at 5-5 with Garden City, their host for the afternoon.

Bill Barber accepted the challenge of taking on the Cougars and was in command nearly the entire game, except for the fourth inning when Garden City tallied their only run on a triple by Randy Wilson and a sacrifice fly by Todd Webb. Barber fanned 14 batters, but more importantly, walked only one batter and kept the Cougars guessing all day. "Bill pitched outstanding against Ann Arbor Pioneer a couple of weeks ago," Hoenes noted, "and came back to beat Garden City in style. He's peaking at the right time for us."

Webb, who pitched the entire game for the Cougars, was tough himself as he fanned 15 batters. But Glenn roughed him up in the third when Simpson led off with a triple and scored on a single by Barber. The Rockets added an insurance run in the sixth. With one out, Dave Byrd was safe on an error and moved to second on a walk to Husak. With two out, Barber lashed a "wrong-field"

Belleville ousted from district, 2-0

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Limiting Belleville to three harmless hits, Ann Arbor Huron knocked the Tigers out of the Class A district playoffs 2-0 last week. Steve Katz teamed with Ron Baker on a three-hitter while their teammates scored once in each of the second and seventh innings. "We threatened a couple of times," said Belleville coach Tom Fielder, "unfortunately we couldn't get the big hit when it counted, and that proved fatal for our playoff hopes." Belleville had runners in scoring position in the third inning when, with one-away, Kevin Keeney singled and was sacrificed to second by Paul Fitch. Jim Utt then rapped a single, putting runners on first and third. But Katz got out of the inning without further damage thanks to a groundout. And, with one out in the fourth, the Tigers again nearly broke the ice when Steve Else drilled a triple. But he was left stranded on the base path. A sixth inning double play after Heath Barnett had walked finished the Tigers off. Barnett allowed six hits, struck out seven and walked four in defeat. Earlier in the week, Wayne

Memorial's sophomore lefthander, Gary Scott, silenced the Tigers on a three-hitter as he whiffed six and walked five to pick up the conference victory. Loser Bob Tansey fanned seven and walked three and was working on a shutout until the last inning when Wayne scored the tying and winning runs. Belleville drew first blood as the Tigers put a run on the scoreboard in the sixth when Utt led off with a single, stole second and scored on Karl Duda's single. But Wayne came back in the bottom of the seventh and scored on two unearned runs thanks to Juan Hearn who led off with a single, stole second. Then Chris Kaske bunted but the relay to first was thrown away, allowing the Hearn to come all the way around. A catcher's error on a third strike paved the way for the winning run.

Belleville had threatened in the seventh, placing their first four runners on base. Tansey was safe on an error; but was picked off at first, then Else walked, and again was picked off. Two consecutive walks issued to Brian Byrd and Fitch kept the Tiger hopes alive until Bill Sommerville's groundout ended the inning. Belleville returns to conference play today at home against title-hopeful Fordson. They still have to find run for rained out make-ups with Wyandotte and Trenton.

Wayne softballers start swinging

Five teams have survived the first two weeks of Wayne Recreation softball action with unblemished records. Lochinvar Water Heater and Greg's II have taken command of the top of the standings in the Women's Division II standings. Greg's has stashed away an 18-1 victory over Wayne Bank and also have convincingly beaten Jake's II, 20-2. In the meantime, Lochinar has claimed a 7-1 victory over New Wayne Party Store and narrowly escaped Tastee Freez, 15-14. Over in the Men's Division II, Ford West Party Store has taken the lead after handing previously undefeated Grand Auto with an 8-4 setback. Ford West has undisputed possession of first place thanks to their 2-0 record and a win over 3-M, 7-1.

Jake's Lounge and Gorilla Engines are setting the pace in the Men's Division. Both teams boast 3-0 records. Erupting for nine runs in the third inning, Century 21 coasted past J & D, 16-5 in a Division I game. Donna Weginka slammed a triple and two singles for the winners while Cindy Burnie had three singles for the losers. Greg's blew a 4-1 first inning lead and went down in defeat at the hands of Cindy Griffin's team. Griffin collected three hits for the winners while Pam Misner tripled and swatted three singles for the losers. Mike Brewis and Jeff Dowling's two hits paced the Brewis' team to a 5-1 victory over Wolverine Carpet. Over in the Women's Division II, Billy's Bar tallied twice in the first, fourth and fifth innings to claim a 6-3 victory over Jake's.

Kuhlman wins Flat Rock Speedway opener

Dave Kuhlman won the 30-lap ARCA late model feature Saturday night at Flat Rock Speedway as 86 cars and a full house of racing fans opened the track's 32nd season. Kuhlman, the '83 ARCA late model champ who hails from Howell, drove his KMH Equipment-Leemon Oil sponsored machine to victory over John Jeukette of Dundee in the Houpt Farms-Irv's Auto Parts special. Joe Hawes of Taylor was third ahead of Monroe's Steve Bunge and Clinton driver Dennis Dombek. Early-race contenders Joy Fair and Harold Cook were sidelined by mechanical problems, and the top 10 was rounded out by John Maki, Jesse Fortin, Ron Watkins, Herman Staschke and Ronnie Allen. Cook set pole qualifying time for an amazing 28th time in the last 46 nights of racing, coming within .05 seconds of his track record, while Maki, Bunge and Canadian driver Wayne Monk won preliminary events.

ner in his heat and the pursuit. In the street stock action, Randy Cronenwett won his 5th career feature event, holding off the charge of Tom Humburger, Len Jaynes, Jerry Cook, and Jack Franzil. Link Bundon, Jim Selmi, Robert Casey, Bruce Hasty and Rick Bundon filled out the top 10. Dan Conn won the consolation and Mike Budnik the semi-consi, with heat event victories going to Link Bundon, Casey, Tom Toth, B.J. Johnson, Dan Rosi, Jr., and Rick Young. Jerry Cook, following in his father Harold's prolific footsteps, set pole qualifying time. In the best appearing car competition, Ronnie Allen took top honors in the late model division, Ray Gaddis topped figure-8 competitors and Rick Bundon continued his mastery of the award in the street stocks. On Saturday, May 18, the night is set aside for racing fan club at the Speedway. Card-carrying members of the Dayton Auto Race fans.

‘Inconsistent’ Eagles wind up in 3rd place

Romulus takes on Lincoln Park in pre-district

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Playing inconsistent baseball cost Coach Dennis Stoh and the Romulus Eagles last week as they continued to flounder on the diamonds. And with Lincoln Park, a traditionally power-laden club coming up on Friday for the pre-district test, Romulus can little afford to be inconsistent.

“We are just not playing well - and you can quote me on that,” said Stoh whose Eagles took a 14-12 won-lost record into this week’s action. “Lincoln Park has a fine ball club and if we are going to survive the pre-district, then we have to put it all together.”

The winner of the Lincoln Park-Romulus game will challenge the winner of the Taylor Truman-Woodhaven contest for the right to compete in the Class A District Tournament.

In the meantime, Oak Park rallied for five runs in the fifth inning thanks to Bill King’s 3-run circuit clout to hand the Eagles an 8-6 setback in the first of two games that brought the curtains down on the Metro-West Conference season. King, the winning pitcher, managed to survive 11 Romulus hits, while he struck out three and walked two.

Tony Yandura went the distance, notched nine strikeouts, walked two in taking the loss.

Oak Park put a run on the scoreboard in the first inning but the Eagles came back to take the lead, 2-1, with the help of the first of two Dave Blevins’ doubles. The Parkers pulled away 6-2 in the top of the fifth and added two more in the sixth to seal the victory, while Romulus scored once in the fifth, two more in the sixth and one in the bottom of the seventh. King gave up nine other hits, all singles.

In the nightcap, it was all Romulus as righthander Jeff Barks scattered nine Oak Park hits, struck out six and walked two. The loser was Dave Park.

Romulus pounded the nails into the Parkers’ coffin in this one in the third inning when they scored six runs. Bob Sloan was the carpenter as he hammered a double, Steve Thornberry then sliced an RBI single and Blevins walked. With runners on second and third, Bob Stratton blasted a two-run single. Yandura then drew a base on balls, and Jim Kusibab singled and a balk paved the way for the final run of the inning.

Sloan, Blevins, Don Shultz, Stratton and Kusibab each contributed two singles in the rout.

Taylor Truman swept two from Stoh’s Eagles to earn a share of first place and the championship. They share the title with city rival, Taylor Center. Romulus finished third in the four-team league.

Truman scored five times in the opening game off of loser Barks to claim a 9-4 decision over the Eagles, then they came back and edged their league rivals, 3-2, in the second game for the sweep. Barks lasted three innings and was removed for Blevins who worked two innings before he gave way to Dave Bergman.

‘There was really two big plays in this game that proved to be our undoing.’
Dennis Stoh

6 teams remain perfect

Before last week’s rains cooled off the action, Romulus’ softball was ‘hot’ and torrid as Bailey’s, Morgan & Associates, M & P Softball emerged with two consecutive wins to emerge atop of the Men’s Division I standings.

In the meantime, in the Women’s Division I, the teams to beat apparently are Little Caesar’s and Lanzo Construction, also with two victories in as many starts.

Here are some of the results as supplied by the Romulus Parks and Recreation Department:

Mama’s and Pastas erupted for seven runs in each of the fourth and sixth innings to subdue Wayne-Palmer Standard 22-1 in their first encounter of the young campaign. Joe Straub collected three hits and knocked in a run while Mike O’Connor came up with four hits, including a triple and counted four RBIs for the winners.

The losers received two hits from Lawrence Warden.

Mama’s also buried St. Lawrence 19-4 as the winners came up with 13 runs in the fifth inning with the help of Jim Straub’s bat. He singled and doubled and drove home three runs. Mike Burdeau chipped in for the winners for three hits, including a triple.

The losers got a pair of hits and runs batted in from Andy Alarie and Bob Skinner singled and tripled.

Mad Anthony’s had little problem with Wayne-Palmer as they emerged atop of a 17-1 score. Terry Yackley hammered in five runs with a homer, double and single while John Rafolski carded three singles and three RBIs.

Lou Warden and Ron Meister led the loser’s assault on winning pitcher Ken Laskaska.

In other action, Morgan’s survived a late A.C. Express rally to win a 14-5 decision from their rivals. Gary Reed homered and singled and drove in three runs and teammate Chuck Evans had a triple and homer and three RBIs for the winners. A.C. was paced by Ken Ohotzke who also homered and singled off of winner, Bernard Edwards.

Nemo’s survived a five-run last inning rally to turn back R.J.’s, 10-6 as Mel Allen slammed two home runs and singled in a 5 RBI for the evening. Mark Bratcher also homered and single while Don McMann had a pair of singles and a double.

Tim German’s single and double were the best of the loser’s.

A 11-run third inning paved the way for Baldos 23-17 victory over Crova’ Bailey. Mike Hoffman slapped a single and double and also clubbed a round-tripper and mate Jerry King socked a pair of doubles and drove in three runs for the winner’s. Jerry Rafask had a single, double and triple and Gordon Malaniak singled and doubled for the loser’s.

Morgan’s overpowered Lawrence’s 16-1 as Dennis Coleman blasted three hits. Jeff Pruitt and Ben Sampson each singled for Lawrence’s.

In one of the lowest scoring duels of the young season, Mad Anthony’s scored twice in the first and added two more in the fourth to claim a 4-1 victory over R.J.’s Party Store. R.J.’s John Mooman singled and doubled for the losers while Jamie Hinojosa had a pair of singles for the winners. Rafalski had a trippled for Mad Anthony’s.

Little Caesar’s apparently has the first softball shutout in the Romulus league as they blanked their rivals, 4-0. Margaret Savage led the winners with a pair of triples. Brenna Kryske also checked in with two hits and Terri Danaso swatted a run-scoring single.

Greg’s held off a determined Contractor’s to win a 19-10 decision over their rivals. Wendy Addley came through with a couple of two-baggers and Mary Batterson contributed two singles and a double. The Contractors responded with two hits each from Cindi Carrel and Michelle Larry.

Lanzo Court, powered by Karen Barton’s grand slam homer, disposed off Livonia Magnetic, 34-3 in a game cut short because of the “mercy rule.” Huber finished the evening with four hits, including a pair of doubles, and Pichan had a triple and a couple of doubles in a five-hit performance.

Northwest made good use of three second inning runs to edge Ladies Lounge 5-3 as Dave and Garry Markin split

Unbeaten in Tri-River

Two outstanding athletes who have helped Cherry Hill to a perfect 6-0 record in the Tri-River Conference are Mike Brown(at left) and Don Watson who also qualified for the state Class B finals. Brown, a sprinter finished second to Darryl Warner of Willow Run in the 100-meter dash. Brown’s 10.8 set a school record, eclipsing the former mark established by Ken Winfrey.

four hits between them for the winners. Randy Britz homered and Bill McMann singled and doubled for the losers.

Northwest had an easier time with Crova’ Bailey as they came out with an 18-3 victory thanks to Dave Marlin’s two circuit clouts.

double to left and Glenn led by the final 3-1 margin.

Garden City put a pair of runners on in the seventh, but Barber was up to the challenge as he got one batter to fly to center and got the last out on a strikeout. Barber came off the mound, flashed the thumbs-up to his dad, and Glenn had clinched second place.

Glenn finished the season 16-8 after dropping a pair on Saturday and now prepares for their pre-district game scheduled for 4 p.m. on Friday at Farmington Harrison.

The Junior Varsity finished 15-8 on the season as they split a doubleheader with Dearborn. John Toye won the first game in relief, 7-6.
